Call for Papers

The 5th Interdisciplinary European Conference on Entrepreneurship Research in Montpellier – France

Conference Theme: “Entrepreneurship and the Region”

Doctoral Workshop: February 27, 2007
Conference: February 28 to March 2, 2007

Location

Montpellier Business School – France
(Groupe Sup de Co Montpellier – France)

Who should attend this conference?

Entrepreneurship scholars in Europe, conducting basic research in business, economics, geography, psychology, sociology or other fields to present and discuss their research findings across disciplines with other experts. The conference calls for contributions on various issues of entrepreneurship. However the theme of the IECER 2007 “Entrepreneurship and the Region” gives special attention to the relationship between regional factors and entrepreneurship. This conference will not include papers on entrepreneurship education.

Contributions:

Submissions for research papers (conference and the doctoral workshop) are welcome on the following and similar topics:

- Environment (entrepreneurship and regional development; regional start-up conditions for entrepreneurship; regional context as a success factor; regional networks and infrastructure; etc.),
- Antecedents (entrepreneurial orientation; opportunity recognition; etc.),
- Types of entrepreneurs(hip) (high-tech venturing; female entrepreneurship; entrepreneurship out of unemployment; social entrepreneurship; etc.),
- Entrepreneurial process (human resource management; growth strategies; organizational development in young firms; competitive strategies),
- Entrepreneurial finance (venture capital, business angels; etc.)
- Types of firms (high tech start-ups, family firms; etc.),
- Outcomes (Individual, organizational, regional key success factors; etc.),
- Entrepreneurship research (epistemology, theory & methodology).

Organizers of the conference:

For the IECER 2007, the founders of the conference offered the opportunity to Montpellier Business School (Groupe Sup de Co Montpellier - France, GSCM) to organize the IECER conference. GSCM will jointly host the conference with the management research laboratory ERFI/ISEM of Montpellier I University (Equipe de Recherche sur la Firme et l'Industrie).
